Summary (maximum 150 words)

This is the template for abstracts for REACT Conference, 2025. All abstracts must be submitted to react@ gla.ac.uk before the deadline.

When submitting the abstract, please indicate whether you would like to be considered for an oral presentation or poster presentation. Please indicate the category of your submission (Research & Technology, Sustainability and Circularity, Applications, Manufacturing, Design & Fashion, Reliability & Testing) during the online submission process.

Please underline the presenting author and make sure that the e-mail address, mailing address and telephone number of the corresponding author are provided.

In the first paragraph, please describe your major achievements and present the summary of your contribution.

Keywords (up to 5)

Please include any key words/phrase of your choice for your work (e.g. printed sensor, wearables, e-yarn)

Motivation and Results

The motivation and results of your research must be clearly identified and the novelty or progress made compared to the state of the art should be provided. The abstract should include original results in the figures to allow the peer reviewers to evaluate your submission for potential publication.

The total length of the abstract including summary and conclusions but excluding references should be around 600 words.

Please present results in the abstract and illustrate your approach and results by referring to figures and/or tables on the second page. To explain the motivation and background of your work, you can refer to previous works by yourselves and/or other researchers to be included on the second page.

A full 4-page open-access proceedings paper will be submitted after acceptance, and will be published in MDPI Engineering Proceedings (indexed). A special issue is planned in IOP Sustainability (the Best Paper Sponsor) with further special issues expected.

Conclusions (max 100 words)

This should highlight the most important conclusions of your work.

Abstracts should be submitted in PDF format and should include the full name of the presenting author in the file title.
